

Red Cross Shoe

Women with the tenderest feet can wear this dress shoe.

It bends with your foot, follows every movement just as a glove moves with your hand. You wouldn't believe a shoe could be so comfortable. Try it—See how different a fashionable style like this feels in the Red Cross Shoe. High Shoes $4, $4.50 and $5. Oxfords $3.50 and $4.

E. F. COYLE

BEREA, KY.

You pay less—or get more

Berea and Vicinity.

GATHERED FROM A VARIETY OF SOURCES

DR. BEST,

DENTIST

CITY PHONE 153

OFFICE OVER RACKET STORE

DAN H. BRECK

Fire, Life and Accident Insurance

Phone 505 Richmond, Ky.

Buy your CELERY and LETTUCE at College garden. Phone 122.

J. R. Mullett, Supt.

Prof. and Mrs. James P. Faulkner expect to return to Berea this Thursday when Prof. Faulkner will again assume charge of The Citizen.

At the Union Church last Sunday morning Prof. James Watt Raine preached the second of his series of sermons on Heaven.

Miss Edith M. Ellis and Miss Annie B. Murray made a short trip to Lexington last week.

Nellie Peck Saunders Concert Company Saturday night.

For Shoes, Clothing and Heavy Underwear, go to R. J. Engle, Berea, Ky.

A meeting of the officials of the Madison County Sunday School Association was held last Monday night in Richmond to discuss the Sunday School work for this Co. and plan for the year, which now has a very hopeful outlook. Those who attended from Berea were Prof. J. R. Robertson, a member of the executive committee; Prof. J. W. Raine, superintendent of educational work; and Mr. W. C. Gamble, secretary. J. G. Crabbe, who is superintendent of the county work, presided.

Moline Wagon—Best in town. Sold by R. J. Engle, Berea, Ky.

Mr. J. J. Brannaman was in Berea a few days this week arranging to have his household goods sent to Pleasureville, Ky., where he has purchased property.

Mr. William Chrisman of Combs, Ky., is visiting this week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dr. Best.

The Mother's Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Gamble next Wednesday afternoon Nov. 16, at 3 o'clock. The subject for discussion will be found in the October number of American Motherhood, pages 221, 236, 237, and 268. All mothers are cordially invited.

WANTED—All the fresh country butter. Top prices.

J. S. Gott, Depot Street.

Mr. A. H. Williams who has been living in Berea for the past month, left Monday for Fruitland Park, Fla., where he expects to make his home.

Dr. A. E. Thomson returned to Berea on Wednesday noon.

The Autumn Carnival given by the Baraca and Philathia classes of the Berea Baptist Sunday School last Saturday night was quite a success. The entertainment provided was first class and the attendance good. About twenty dollars was realized for the Sunday School fund. These classes wish to thank their friends for their patronage.

Miss Hilda Welch who has been ill with typhoid fever for several weeks is able to be out again.

Don't fail to see the bargains in laces, embroideries, braids, trimmings, dress fabrics, and the very best and latest in linens, shantungs—and don't forget the chinaware at

MRS. EARLY'S

WATCHES

IF YOU are thinking of buying a Watch or any piece of Jewelry you will make a mistake if you fail to GET OUR PRICES. You will find them to be from 15 to 50 per cent less than other jewelers'. QUALITY at reasonable price is our system.

Porter Drug Company

INCORPORATED

Berea, Kentucky

College Items

HERE AND THERE

Prof. Raine preached at Chapel last Sunday night and is also to preach on the coming Sunday night.

Mr. Will C. Gamble was in Cincinnati last Tuesday.

A football game between the Blues and the Whites was played on the Athletic Field last Saturday afternoon. The score was 5 to 0 in favor of the Blues.

All roads lead to the College Chapel next Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah May have recently moved into their new house on Estill Street.

The Rev. Henry M. Penniman was in Berea from Monday to Tuesday noon to vote.

Special services began at Narrow Gap last Tuesday night with a first meeting which was encouraging both in attendance and interest.

Mrs. Crouse, who for some years has conducted such meetings in the mountains, and Miss Adella Fox have charge of the afternoon meetings at 2:30 and Rev. Howard Hudson of the night meetings at 6:30. These services will probably continue for about two weeks.

The lecture by Professor Robertson on the early days of Madison County is outlined somewhat at length under the account of the meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The six contestants for the Home Oratorical Contest, which takes place on December 22, were elected last Friday night. The men chosen are John Minnich, Tracy Tuthill, James Farmer, Fletcher Gabbard, Samuel Grathwohl, and Clark Wilson.

A recent letter from Alfred Meese, a graduate of the class of '09, who

FRESH OYSTERS

and all kinds of good things to eat

AT

Phone 108 WALTER ENGLE'S Berea, Ky.

is studying English in the graduate college of Harvard University, says that in comparison with the work thus far, he has only admiration for the teaching at Berea, and feels that it is very strong. His opinion is that students who take English during the four years here are very well equipped to enter upon the graduate work at Harvard.

Thos. A. Edwards, superintendent of the Model Schools, and Mr. James C. Bowman are to be in Dayton, O., on Thursday and Friday of this week attending the Central Ohio Teachers' Association. This is a large association with an attendance of several thousand teachers.

Dr. J. A. Stuckey of Lexington, one of the ablest and best known surgeons in this part of the country, gave an address to the young men of the College and such men from the town as desired to attend last Sunday afternoon in the College chapel. Later a question box meeting was held in room 80. The large and attentive audience testified to the interest and appreciation felt in his address.

The lectures of Professors Robertson and Edwards in chapel last Monday morning were both unusually interesting. In lower chapel Prof. Edwards gave the history of famous hymns and the occasion for their writing. As he finished his description of each hymn, it was sung by the student body.

Russel King of the academy department has been called home to Pulaski, Pulaski County, to enter the employ of his uncle.

Mr. Samuel L. Clark and Prof. M. E. Marsh went to Richmond on last Court day to buy cows for the College dairy but none were to be had.

The meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association Sunday evening was one of the most interesting and helpful of the term so far. The leader was Miss Margaret Schumaker and the topic, "Is My Candle Burning, and What Kind of a Shadow Am I Casting?"

The young ladies of Pi Epsilon Pi Literary Society were invited to the home of Mrs. William G. Frost last Friday evening to give their literary program and were delightfully entertained by her.

William Raine is sick in the hospital with a light case of scarlet fever.

LYCEUM COURSE

The first of the series of entertainments for the fall Lyceum Course will be given in the Chapel this coming Saturday night, November 12, at 7:30 p. m. Single admission, 40 cents; season ticket, good for the three numbers of the course, 65 cents. Tickets for sale by Porter Drug Company, Co-operative Store, Welch's Drug Store, Claude Anderson, Samuel Grathwohl, Harry Jackson, John White and Clark Wilson.

The Nellie Peck Saunders Concert Company is composed of Mrs. Saunders, reader and impersonator; Miss Marie Barney, pianiste and soprano soloist; and Mr. Milton Bertoli, baritone soloist. Such a combination gives promise of an evening of great enjoyment.

The two remaining numbers come on November 21 and December 10.

IF YOU WANT

A NEW STOVE LOOK AT OUR LINE BEFORE YOU BUY.

I have just received a new line of Stoves and Stovepipes.

AT A VERY LOW PRICE

W. J. TATUM

MAIN STREET.

If you want to secure the lowest price of the year, buy winter's coal now.

If you want good service along with good coal permit us to fill your bin at once.

Holliday & Co.

Phone 169 and 71 Berea, Ky.

Commissioner's Sale

A. K. Doty, Plaintiff vs. ORDER OF SALE. Frank Gay, and etc, Defendants

Under and by virtue of judgment and order of sale rendered at the October Term of the Madison Circuit Court, in the above styled action, the undersigned Master Commissioner of said court will, on Monday, December 5, 1910, County Court Day, at 11 o'clock a. m., in front of the Court House door in Richmond, Ky., sell to the highest and best bidder the following described property or so much thereof as will produce the sum of $297 and the cost of this action.

A tract of land in Madison County, Kentucky, beginning at a stone on the north bank of Brushy Fork of Silver Creek, a hickory and two poplars as pointers, corner to F. B. West, N. 50 W., 100 poles to a stake in the Brushy Fork and on the old line near a white oak pointer; thence N. 55 E., 80 poles to beginning, containing 50 acres more or less and being the same land conveyed to the defendants, by the Richmond Cooperage Co. Deed book 65 at page 290.

Terms: Said property will be sold on six months time, the purchaser being required to execute bond with approved security bearing six per cent interest from date until paid, to have the force and effect of a judgment and a lien retained on the property until all the purchase money is paid.

H. C. Rice, M. C. M. C. C.

A Step Ahead in Quality A Step Behind in Price

IS where we stand this season. As far as price alone is concerned there are stores in Berea where you can buy clothes at the same range of price we ask. But they do not measure up to ours in style, material, or workmanship qualities. Buying clothing from us eliminates all chance of speculation. The garment will make good, or we will. We have

SUITS AND OVERCOATS

For Men, Young Men and Boys—High Grade but not high price. PANTS to fit all Men—PANTS to fit all Boys. Bring your boy here to get his Fall Suit. We will fix the price to suit you.

RHODUS & HAYES

The Quality Store

MAIN STREET

BEREA, KY

"The Frax"

Perfection